

Colonial, the first Spanish real estate company to have a member on the board of this prestigious association

Pere Viñolas named member of the EPRA Board

- The EPRA (European Public Real Estate Association) comprises the main association of the listed European Real Estate Sector
- Colonial is the only Spanish real estate company awarded with these two awards: the “EPRA Gold Award – Financial Reporting” and the “EPRA Gold Award – Sustainability”

Barcelona, 15 of September 2016. The European Public Real Estate Association (EPRA), the association renowned with the maximum representation of the listed European real estate sector, has chosen Colonial to form part of its Board of Directors.

The representation of Colonial will be taken on by Pere Viñolas, Colonial's CEO, who will be chosen as a member of EPRA's board representing the south of Europe. It is the first time that a Spanish company will form part of the maximum body of this prestigious association.

The decision was made public during EPRA's annual meeting celebrated in Paris. Viñolas will have a seat on a Board reserved for important actors in the sector such as Unibail Rodamco, Vonovia and Land Securities.

Colonial, honoured with two EPRA awards

In addition, at the recent EPRA Awards, Colonial was honoured with two top class awards.

Specifically, the company has obtained the “EPRA Gold Award – Financial Reporting” for another year, recognizing its excellence and transparency in the communication of financial information in the capital markets.

In addition, Colonial has been recognized with the “EPRA Gold Award – Sustainability”, which awards real estate companies who put sustainability measures in practice and spotlights the high quality assets in Colonial’s portfolio in all of its markets.

Colonial is the only Spanish real estate company that has ever achieved these two awards.
